

Author - Speaker - Coach

Lynn Baber is a best-selling author, World and National Champion trainer and breeder, serial entrepreneur, and former business consultant. Four of her six faith-based books have earned best-seller or #1 ranking in their category on Amazon.

Following seven recent years in ministry, Lynn offers clarity, insight, and support to Christians in a post-Christian world through books, articles, workshops, and individual coaching. She helps capable, committed people integrate and simplify every part of life to elevate confidence and boost achievement — while glorifying God.

Lynn also teaches horse owners how to enhance relationship and performance by transforming complexity into simple choices. Lynn and Larry Baber share their Weatherford barn with horses, dogs, and cats.
